How to Find Obligatory Scenes and Conventions: the Redemption Story Story Grid Blog Article: December 22, 2017

| STORY PRINCIPLES  | A CHRISTMAS CAROL(Alastair Sim Version)  | Drugstore Cowboy(Story Grid Example)  | Gran Torino   | THE VERDICT  | Kramer v. Kramer   | The Legend ofBagger Vance   |
|---|--|---|---|--|--|---|
| Global Genre (internal)                                     | Morality > Redemption  | Morality > Redemption   | Morality > Redemption   | Morality > Redemption  | Morality > Redemption  | Morality > Redemption   |
| Secondary Genre (external)                                  | Horror > Supernatural  | Crime > Organized Crime   | Action Epic > Savior  | Crime > Courtroom  | Love > Marriage  | Performance > Sports  |
| Obligatory Scenes:  |  |   |   |  |  |   |
| <ol> <li>Wake Up Call (the Snap-Out-Of-It Scene)</li> </ol> | Marley's ghost appears.  | Police raid Bob's house.  | Walt is forced to protect hisproperty from gangmembers.   | Mickey has had enough.   | Joanna leaves Ted to care for their son.   | Bagger Vance arrives.   |
| 2. Overt Refusal of the Call                                | Scrooge doesn't want to bevisited by the Ghosts ofChristmas past, present andfuture.                           | Bob continues to steal.   | Walt doesn't want to beseen as the hero of theneighborhood.   | Franks continues to drinkand plans to settle the case.                           | Ted thinks the situation istemporary and that Joannawill be back soon.   | Junuh bails on the matchand leaves town in hispickup truck.   |
| 3. All is Lost  | Scrooge collapses onto his headstone.  | Nadine overdoses.   | Sue is attacked   | The check: Frank realizes the Archdiocese has his number.                            | Ted loses his job and with it,his chance to win custody ofBilly.   | 3 strokes behind, ball inwoods. Junuh feelsdefeated.  |
| 4. Protagonist Decides to Change                            | At the graveyard, Scroogebegs for pity and repents.He promises to change theshadows of things that willbe. | After Nadine's death, Bobasks God for pity andpromises to change if hedoesn't get caught. | Walt chooses a non-violentsolution to the gangsituation – faces themunarmed. Previously, he'dused firearms (handgun,shotgun). | Frank can't take the moneyfrom the Archdiocese.Knows he'll be lost.          | Ted puts Billy's needs aheadof his own, finds a job in 24-hours (on Christmas Eve)and accepts a demotion andpay cut. | Bagger literally tells Junuhthat it's time to choose.Junuh decides to leave hispast behind him, break freefrom the memories thathave haunted him. |
| 5. Wins but Loses / Loses but Wins                          | Scrooge saves his soul, butloses his money.  | Bob gets clean, but loses his wife.   | Walt learns how to care again, but loses his life.  | Frank wins the case butloses the girl and thealcohol.                        | Wins son but loses wife and career.  | Wins self-respect, losesguidance of Bagger Vance.   |
| Conventions:  |  |   |   |  |  |   |
| 1. A Self-Obsessed Protagonist                              | Scrooge's money is all that matters to him.  | Bob values drugs more thaneveryone and everythingelse.  | Walt has alienated himselffrom everyone. Cares morefor his gnome than Thao'ssafety.   | Frank is a drunk who wantshis share of a big financialsettlement.            | Ted is completely focusedon his career – wife leavesand his concern is for hiscareer, not his son.                       | Junuh wallows in self-pityand has no concern for thefinancial troubles of Adeleor the citizens of Savannah.   |
| 2. Spiritual Guide / Sidekick                               | Marley and the Ghosts ofChristmas past, present andfuture.   | Drugs. God. Father Murphy.  | Dorothy (Walt's wife).Father Janovich.  | Mickey. Deborah Ann Kaye.Laura Fisher (when shechallenges Frank).            | Billy (Ted's son).   | Bagger Vance.   |
| 3. Improbable External Conflict                             | Are the ghosts real or imagined?   | Bob gets away with the dead body.   | Senior citizen takes on a gang and wins.  | A drunk man takes on theArchdiocese with noadmissible evidence, andwins. | A loving mother walks awayfrom her young son, twice,even after winning custody.  | Down-and-out golfer takeson 2 greatest players in thehistory of the game, andwins.  |

VALERIE FRANCIS AUTHOR & CERTIFIED STORY ORID EDITOR WWW.VALERIEFRANCIS.CA

| 4. Protagonist Haunted by Past  | Scrooge is ashamed of thechoices he's made since hissister's death. | David shoots him.                                  | Walt carries around thehorrors he experiencedduring the Korean war.                        | The Lillibridge case, approx12 years prior, colorsantagonists' perception ofFrank. (Archdiocese, Ed                            | Ted's prior admission thathe felt responsible for Billy'splayground accident, causeshim to lose custody.  | Junuh suffers fromflashbacks from the war(WWI).        |
|---|---|--|--|--|---|--|
|   | Tinu Tin  | Nedice (side distilies) and                        |  | Concannon, Judge Hoyle)  | ,   | Hardy Creaves (a have the                                      |
| 5. Help from Unexpected Sources   | Tiny Tim.   | Nadine (girl he dislikes) andGentry (officer). | Sue Lor (young girl nextdoor).   | Deborah Ann Kaye (client, acomplete stranger).Archdiocese (the defendant,holds a mirror up to Frank inthe form of a check) | Margaret Phelps (Ted andJoanna's friend andneighbor).   | Hardy Greaves (a boy whobelieves in him)                   |
| Point of Curiosity: Does the writer show that the protagonist was good once? | Yes. Scrooge was capable of love, kindness and affection.                   | No. Bob has been a drugaddict his entire life. | Indirectly. He must havebeen if "the best womanwho ever walked theplanet" married him. | Yes. Frank was an excellentlawyer.   | Yes. Joanna admits that thefirst two years of marriagewere happy. Ted was afaithful husband whoprovided for his family andwas not abusive in any way. | Yes. Junuh was the hero ofSavannah (golf and warhero). |