Inciting Incident (causal): Dobby warns Harry not to go to Hogwarts - hinting at a	-	- potential attack on Harry. When he doesn't listen, Dobby places a hover charm on Petunia's prized pudding, crashing it to the floor, causing Harry to be grounded for weeks; the Wesleys break him out of the room in their flying car.
Turning Point Progressive Complication (Character Action): Blocked (by Dobby)	_	+ from getting on the train, Harry and Ron decide to illegally fly the car to Hogwarts, which lands them in Detention. In Harry's detention with Lockhart - he hears a voice inciting murder and is worried that Lockhart can't hear the voice.
Crisis (BC): Does he tell Dumbledore about the voices? Or does he keep the	?	+ knowledge to himself and try to solve the mystery without the teacher's help?
Climax: He keeps quiet, and the next time he hears the voices, after the Deathday party, he finds Mrs Norris attacked. Nearby is a warning to enemies of the heir that the Chamber of Secrets has been opened.
Resolution: Filch accuses Harry of attacking Mrs Norris, and Harry continues to	+	- keep the voices a secret from Dumbledore and agrees with Hermoine's plans to use Polyjuice to interrogate Malfoy.
